

OPEN DONATION AGREEMENT PREFERENCES Working Document Only

This agreement is made and entered into as of the date set forth below, by and between _____ (male) and _____ (female) (referred to hereafter as “Embryo Donors”), and _____ (husband) and _____ (wife) (referred to hereafter as “Embryo Recipients”);

WHEREAS, the Embryo Donors wish to transfer all their cryopreserved embryos (the “Embryos”) to the Embryo Recipients for the sole purpose of implantation with the ultimate objective of one or more viable pregnancies for the Embryo Recipients; and

WHEREAS, the Embryo Recipients desire to receive the transferred embryos for the aforesaid purpose; and

WHEREAS, the identity of each party is known to the other parties and the parties wish to agree on certain terms and conditions relative to communication and future contact between themselves and their related offspring;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, as well as the mutual benefit to be derived from herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

- 1. Transfer of Embryos. Embryo Donors hereby donate, transfer and convey any and all right, title, and interest which Embryo Donors now have or may have in the future in and to the Embryos to Embryo Recipients for the purposes contained herein.*
- 2. Informed Consent/Waiver of Liability; Applicable Laws. The parties have each previously signed or agree to subsequently sign an Informed Consent/Waiver of Liability form (“Consent Form”) as provided to them by the National Embryo Donation Center wherein the risks inherent in transferring, transporting, thawing and implanting cryopreserved embryos are identified, with liability for the same being knowingly waived, as well as liability for any long-term health complications of children conceived or born as a result of the anticipated embryo transfer between the parties. The parties understand that embryo donation is a new, developing and unsettled area of the law and that few states have laws regulating the transfer and implantation of embryos. The general state of the law treats embryos as personal property subject to the ownership rights of the genetic parents or persons or organizations to whom ownership rights have been legally transferred. The parties desire that this Agreement and their Consent Forms shall, to the extent not previously proscribed by law, define their legal rights, duties and responsibilities in connection with the transfer and implantation of the embryos of the Embryo Donors, as well as future communications between the parties. In the event of any conflict between the Consent Forms and this Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail. Should any subsequent laws be established affecting the transfer of embryos or contact between the parties to an embryo* transfer, it is the intention of the parties that such laws not supersede or alter the terms of this Agreement or the Consent Forms, except to the extent required by law.

3. National Embryo Donation Center. The parties recognize, understand and agree that the National Embryo Adoption Center/National Embryo Donation Center (“NEDC”) is a Tennessee nonprofit corporation which exists for the purpose of facilitating the transfer of embryos between persons such as the parties to this agreement. The parties understand that NEDC is not a licensed child-placing agency under the laws of the State of Tennessee or any other state. The role of NEDC in facilitating the embryo donation between the parties shall not vest in NEDC any title or ownership interest in the transferred Embryos, it being the sole responsibility of NEDC to use reasonable efforts to implement the mutual agreements and intentions of the parties as set forth in this Agreement. NEDC shall be a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement and shall undertake its responsibilities hereunder solely as agent of each of the parties hereto. Each party hereby waives, releases and relinquishes any and all rights, claims or causes of action of any kind, whether known or unknown and whether now existing or occurring in the future, over and against NEDC and agrees to protect, defend, hold harmless and indemnify NEDC, its directors, officers, agents, employees and contractors from and against any and all expenses, claims, actions, liabilities, attorney’s fees, damages, losses, penalties, fines, and interest of any kind whatsoever (including without limiting the foregoing, death of or injury to persons or Embryos and damage to property) actually or allegedly resulting from or connected with the matters contemplated in this Agreement.

4. Shared Information. The parties have and/or will share identifying information with each other. Notwithstanding that fact, however, the parties agree to respect each other’s privacy by adhering to the following agreed upon time and manner restrictions concerning post-embryo transfer communication:

a. Information to be shared at birth:

b. Given the birth of any child(ren) born to Embryo Recipients as a result of the implantation of the Embryos transferred hereunder, the Embryo Recipients may periodically provide the Embryo Donors with additional information. If there is agreement to provide additional information, such information will be provided as follows:

i. Frequency of communication between Embryo Donor and Embryo Recipients:

ii. Information to be communicated:

iii. Method of communication (for example, internet, photos, letters, etc.):

iv. Medium of communication:

5. Medical Issues. The parties understand that genetic medical issues may arise with the Embryo Donors and/or their genetic children, which would be useful information to the Embryo Recipients and/or the child(ren) born as a result of the implantation of the Embryo(s) (and vice-versa). The parties also recognize the value of the exchange of information in the event that an organ donor or other type of medical assistance may be needed by a child or parent of the genetic relationship. Accordingly, the parties agree to a future exchange of medical information, as follows:

a. Embryo Donors. The Embryo Donors agree to give the Embryo Recipients and the Embryo Donors agree to receive from the Embryo Donors any genetic medical information or medical needs, as the same arise.

Yes _____ No _____

b. Embryo Recipients. The Embryo Recipients agree to give the Embryo Donors and the Embryo Recipients agree to receive from the Embryo Recipients any genetic medical information or medical needs, as the same arise.

Yes _____ No _____

6. Personal Contact. The parties understand and agree that any child(ren) born to the Embryo Recipients as a result of an embryo transfer under this Agreement shall be the legal child(ren) of the Embryo Recipients. The birth certificate issued by the applicable State Office of Vital Records shall be issued in the names of the Embryo Recipients as the mother and the father of the child(ren), and the Embryo Recipients shall bear the same relationship to such child(ren) as all biological parents do to their biological children, with all rights and responsibilities that arise from that relationship, including the right of inheritance. The Embryo Donors shall have no rights or responsibilities pertaining to any child(ren) born as a result of the implantation of the Embryos transferred under this Agreement, including no legal obligation to support such child(ren) and no legal right to custody, visitation, or inheritance from the estate of such child(ren), and no such child(ren) shall have any inheritance rights in the estates of the Embryo Donors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to what the parties agree to be in the best interest of the child(ren) at the applicable time, the Parties agree to contact between themselves and/or their genetic child(ren) at a future date, as follows:

- 7. Disposition of Unused Embryos. In the event of the termination of the marriage of the Embryo Recipients by death, divorce, or otherwise, or in the event that the Embryo Recipients achieve a successful pregnancy without using all of the Embryos transferred hereunder and they indicate to NEDC that they do not wish to implant any additional Embryos, the parties agree that all remaining Embryos in any such event shall be transferred to and shall become the property of NEDC and will be made available for implantation in other Embryo Recipients who will undergo the same open process as the first Embryo Recipients. In the Event that the NEDC cannot locate, with reasonable efforts, the embryo donors for a second open match and agreement, the NEDC will make the remaining donated embryos available for anonymous donation. Until such time as all Embryos transferred hereunder have been thawed and implanted and/or ownership transferred to NEDC under this Paragraph 7, Embryo Recipients agree to pay all transportation and storage costs for their unused Embryos.

- 8. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the terms of the laws of the State of Tennessee.

- 9. Legal Advice. The parties hereto acknowledge that they have had adequate opportunity to seek and obtain separate and independent, legal counsel and advice concerning the terms of this Agreement and the Consent Forms, and the duties and responsibilities conferred therein.

- 10. Confidentiality. All parties of this Agreement agree that any identifying information regarding the parties shall be confidential and may only be disclosed to third parties as is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement.

- 11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Consent Forms, together represent the entire agreement between the parties hereto. No prior or subsequent oral or written statements or agreements between or among the parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be of any force and effect unless in writing and signed by all parties hereto.

The information provided above includes your preferences for an open relationship with potential Recipient Couples who may adopt your embryos. The information you provide in this working document is NOT legally binding and will mainly be used during the matching phase of embryo adoption. You will have the opportunity to change any of your preferences during the mediation phase. A legal document will be provided upon completion of the mediation phase.
